But Magisk does do some degree of systemless rooting?'.02 October 2012 Spring is usually a very busy time in our industry, with exhibitors racing to put together the most attractive exhibits in the shortest amount of time. With such a brief timeframe, this year's edition of PackExpo Canada was actually a few weeks later than usual, which has given Expo attendees lots of time to enjoy the event. Between the color of the leaves, the crispness of the air, the glorious warmth of spring, and the roaring raceways at the expo - it really is the perfect time to be at the Canada's International Log Expo. Now in it's 9th year, PackExpo Canada continues to be one of the highlights of the Canadian Log Expo calendar. This year's expo was larger and better organized than ever, with an exhibitor hall that, although still crowded, was much more comfortable to work and visit.

With that in mind, here's our overview of some of the key highlights from the 2012 edition of PackExpo Canada! Exhibitors were hard at work bringing their latest and greatest equipment to show off in our specially organized equipment hall. Perhaps the most interesting feature to our industry was the special Canada's International Log Exhibit, which told the story of Canada's logging industry through the exhibits of 28 of our northern lumber communities! With the competitiveness of the Canadian lumber trade being of the utmost importance to the success of Canadian lumber, PackExpo Canada provides the industry with an incredible opportunity to network with like-minded companies, and learn what the local lumber industry is planning for the future. The Canada's International Log Exhibit alone could have easily been an exhibitor's dream show, so if you didn't make it to the show, make sure you check out our
